Jesus is Enough

VISITING?

We're glad you've joined us today as we speak to God in our prayers and our praise, and as we listen together as He speaks to us through His Word, the Bible. If this is your first time here, we extend to you a warm welcome. We are thankful that you chosen to visit with us this morning.

At the conclusion of the service if you have any questions about our church or about becoming a Christian, please speak to our minister or with one of the elders who will be available at the rear of the auditorium.

Thank you for visiting and we hope you will feel welcome enough to come again.

See Amy McCumsey and link in church email to sign up and help.

I sat this morning and reread about the lives of Richard's father and Camille's mother and have been thinking about the faithful heritage of those families through the morning. I received a message from my cousin this morning saying "thinking of you". Yesterday was 20 years since the passing of my brother. In two weeks will be 30 years since the passing of my father. It is surprising that in just a few weeks it will already be 4 years since the passing of my mom. Remembering the faithfulness of those who pass over before us sometimes hits as strong sentimental reminders that God is enough. He has to be enough. In terms of eternity, there is nothing else.
