November 1, 2026 Timeless Truths

C.S. Lewis was one of the great Christian apologists of the 20th century as well as a gifted writer, who has inspired generations with his diverse writings.
Below is an excerpt from C.S. Lewis' 1942 fictional, satirical book, The Screwtape Letters. Screwtape is a senior demon, experienced in the craft of temptation. He is writing to his nephew, Wormwood, to teach him the finer art of temptation and how best to capture the hearts of people who might want to follow God (the Enemy).

My dear Wormwood,

Be sure that the patient remains completely fixated on politics. Arguments, political gossip, and obsessing on the faults of people they have never met serve as an excellent distraction from advancing in virtue, character formation, and the things the patient can control. Make sure to keep the patient in a constant state of angst, frustration, and general disdain towards the rest of the human race in order to avoid any kind of charity or inner peace from further developing. Be sure the patient continues to believe that the problem is "out there" in the "broken system" rather than recognizing there is a problem with himself.

Keep up the good work,
UNCLE SCREWTAPE

Be sober and vigilant, for your adversary, the devil, prowls around like a roaring lion seeking someone to devour."
~ 1 Peter 5:8
