Let's make Christmas real! It's so much more than tinsel and ribbon. Unless that's all we have made it that way in our hearts. Christmas is the spirit of giving without the thought of getting. It is the happiness we see in the joy in others. It is forgetting ourselves and finding time for others. It is Peace because we have found Peace in the Savior's teachings. If you desire to find the true spirit of Christmas and partake in the perfectness of it, consider this: During the hurry of the festive occasion of this Christmas season, find time to turn your heart toward God. Perhaps in a quiet place, in the quiet hours – alone or with loved ones -give thanks for the good things that have come to you and ask that His Spirit might dwell in you as you earnestly try to serve Him and keep His commandments.

Merry Christmas to everyone!

~Paul Holdren
