Romans

“Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.” Hebrews 13:16 (ESV)

There is much to contemplate in this verse, but consider, if you will, those four words right in the middle, “Share what you have....” We can share with others no matter where we are, or what our station in life may be, and we are told in this verse that when we do, it will be pleasing God. All around us are those who may need something. Perhaps, they need encouragement, and we can attempt to provide some input for them to lift their spirits. Maybe it’s as simple as a kind word. It could be sharing a meal, or it could be providing a listening ear or sharing a prayer with them. Whatever you may have to offer to others, whether material or emotional, determine to be a person who regularly and cheerfully shares a portion of what he or she has.

As we enter the world this week, let’s willingly reach out to bless others with some measure of what God has already abundantly provided for us.

Even small sacrifices of our time or resources please the Lord.

-Paul Holdren

At the conclusion of the service if you have any questions about our church or about becoming a Christian, please speak to our minister or with one of the elders who will be available at the rear of the auditorium.
